The Public Hall of Residence is located in Ferrol town centre, at Magdalena district to be precise. It is easily accessible to both Esteiro and Serantes campuses.

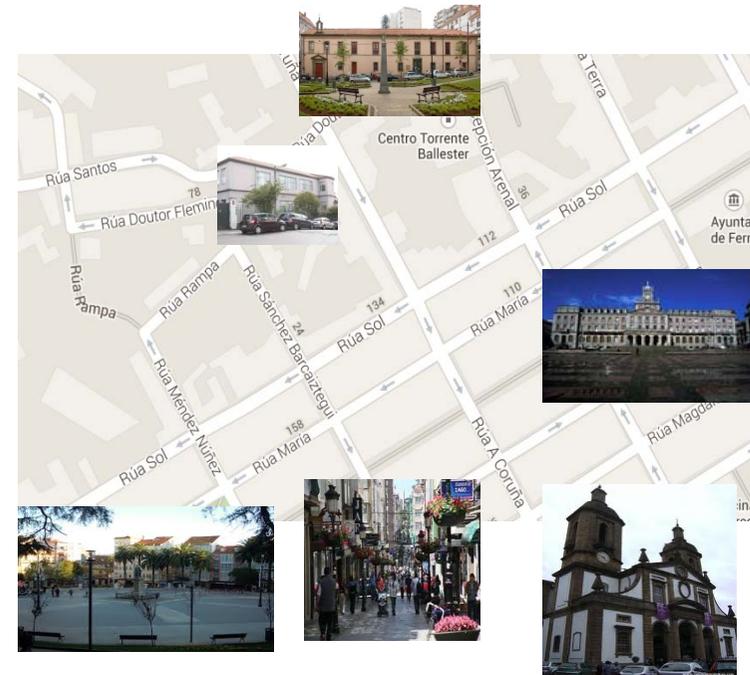

The Magdalena district is an example of rational town planning from the Age of Enlightenment and was declared a historic-artistic site in 1983.

It was rectangular-shaped with six parallel streets and nine right-angled cross streets, which are shorter and also parallel.

The structure of this neighbourhood is a grid, with identical shape and dimensions. On the furthest points stand out two wide squares: Amboaxe square and Armas square, where the town council is situated.

This district preserves eighteenth-century houses, with wrought iron balconies on stone corbels and glazed white wooden galleries (most of them, from nineteenth century); in addition, there are modernist buildings with a gallery as the main design feature.
